

วิชา ภาษาอังกฤษ

EP.1 Error Identification

1. Prediction from data analysis of school absenteeism, summer breaks, and natural disaster occurrences are imperfect for the current situation.
2. Although COVID-19 has affected all levels of education reception and delivery, children with special needs have been more profound impacted.
3. City tourism is one of the fastest growing travel segment worldwide and the changing nature of city tourism becomes increasingly apparent in many cities.
4. Although no correlation found between obesity and education in men, women with college degrees are less likely to have obesity than those with less education.
5. Poor nutrition is the leading cause of illnesses in United States, with unhealthy diets killing millions of people each year.